

Contents "Publish Grey or Perish"

Research Output Publications and CRIS	5
Anne Asserson (Norway) and Keith G. Jeffery (United Kingdom)
Old WWWine in New Bottles? Developments in electronic information and communication: structural change & and functional inertia	9
Helmut M. Artus (Germany)
Two Worlds: About Bars and Stars in Scientific Information Publishing, An Analysis of Open Source Ideology As a Means of Self-controlled Publishing ...	17
Cees de Blaaij (Netherlands)
Impact of the Inclusion of Grey Literature on the Scholarly Communication Patterns of an Interdisciplinary Specialty	25
Kathel Dunn (United States)
Citation Analysis and Grey Literature: Stakeholders in the Grey Circuit	31
Joachim Schöpfel and Christiane Stock (France) Dominic J. Farace and Jerry Frantzen (Netherlands)
Grey Literature Survey 2004: A research project tracking developments in the field of grey literature	41
Albert K. Boekhorst, Dominic J. Farace and Jerry Frantzen (Netherlands)

Colophon.....	2
Editor's Note.....	4
On the News Front
A Review of the GL6 Conference in New York.....	51
Laurence Seidenberg (United States)
GL7 Call for Papers.....	52
About the Authors.....	54
Notes for Contributors.....	55