GLOSSARY

DIGITAL CENTURY

The Digital Century is the time we live, characterized by people's ability to transmit information without restriction and to have access to information in a way that was impossible in the past. It is also called the "informational era (more here: https://www.igi-global.com/dictionary/resource-sharing/7562)

GREY LITERATURE

Grey literature (or gray literature) is materials and research produced by organizations outside of the traditional commercial or academic publishing and distribution channels.

PUBLISHING

Publishing means making information available to the public. In the past this was done mainly through issuing printed copies of documents. Now there are many more options such as websites, print, DVD, e-publications and apps.
