

Forthcoming - Volume 19, Number 1, Spring 2023
'Policy and Legal Issues impacting Grey Literature'

e-ISSN 1574-180X

Editor's Note

Using the Overton policy to academic citation network: how does the policy grey literature and scholarly record connect?

Euan Adie, Terrence Bucknell, Jennifer Glover, and Ángel Luis Jaso-Tamame, Open Policy Ltd., United Kingdom

Legal Implications of the CASE Act on Grey Libraries and Grey Literature Authors

Tomas A. Lipinski and Laura Christine Schein, School of Information Studies; University of Wisconsin—Milwaukee, United States

Data Science as a Research Support Service and the Role of the Libraries: UF's CNI Executive Roundtable Experience

Plato Smith, Erik Deumens, and Christopher Barnes, University of Florida, United States

Open Science as an Opportunity for Academic Grey Literature – A Systematic Review

Joachim Schöpfel, University of Lille and Hélène Prost, CNRS - GERiiCO, France

Data Papers provide an Open and FAIR Way to publish Research Data: GreyNet's Use Case

Dominic Farace, GreyNet International, Netherlands

Business Survival Strategy during COVID-19 Pandemic: A Case Study of Kopontren

Adrian Ariatin, Wawan Dhewanto, Oktofa Yudha Sudrajad, Sonny Rustiadi, and Meditya Wasesa; School of Business and Management, Institut Teknologi Bandung, Bandung, Indonesia

On the News Front

GL25 Conference Announcement and Call for Papers

Twenty-Fifth International Conference on Grey Literature
'Confronting Climate Change with Trusted Grey Resources'

<https://textrelease.com/gl25conference.html>

<https://textrelease.com/gl25callforpapers.html>

<https://surveymonkey.com/r/J8DJSF5>

Registry of Organizations Serving as Publishers in the Field of Grey Literature

GreyNet