

Forthcoming

Volume 19, Number 2, Summer 2023

'A Shift in Focus on Grey Literature'

e-ISSN 1574-180X

Editor's Note

Grey is the new black: changing library instruction virtually

Aleksandra Blake and Margaret McLeod; Carleton University, Canada

Information Fatigue Syndrome and Digital Burnout

Dobrica Savić, IAEA Information and Knowledge Management Consultant, Austria

Preregistration of research for theses - a new standard?

Tereza Šimová, Czech University of Life Sciences Prague, Czech Republic

Zine Making as Autoethnographic Serious Leisure

Andrea Marshall, Centre for Media and Celebrity Studies, United States

Patent files: Case study of digitalization in The National and University Library of Slovenia

Mojca Trtnik and Veronika Potočnik, National and University Library, Slovenia

Grey resources of the National Library and Archives of Iran: A case study of the Medical Sciences group

Reza Shahrabi Farahani and Somayeh Sadat Hashemi, National Library and Archives of Iran

On the News Front

Twenty-Fifth International Conference on Grey Literature 'Confronting Climate Change with Trusted Grey Resources'

- Draft Conference Program
<https://textrelease.com/gl25conference/program.html>
- Call for Posters
<https://textrelease.com/gl25callforposters.html>
- Professional Development Forum
<https://textrelease.com/gl25forum.html>

GreyNet

<https://textrelease.com>

Grey Literature Network Service

<https://greynet.org>